The Queen's Commonwealth Essay Competition was founded in 1883 and is the world's oldest international schools' writing competition, giving creative young writers from across the Commonwealth the opportunity to explore contemporary themes through the written word. Through its promotion of literacy and writing skills, the QCEC contributes to the UN's Sustainable Development Goal 4 (Quality Education) in over 60 countries and territories, and the Society aims to reach even more young people throughout the Commonwealth in the coming years through our digital literacy initiative. The competition comprises two categories: the Junior category, open to entrants aged 13 years and under; and the Senior category for entrants aged 14-18.

The ceremony will announce and recognize the students who participated and award those who earned Gold Finalist, Gold, Silver, and Bronze status in the 2022 Queen's Commonwealth

Essay Competition, which received entries from across the Commonwealth.

The 2021 past winners are shown here. Winners from 2018 and beyond, can be viewed on the St. Lucia's Queen's Commonwealth Essay Writers website at: https:// 5fc068d63977b.site123.me.

Saturday 14 January 2023 Paint the Village with Jonathan Gladding "The Vanishing Wooden House"

Paint the Village is Laborie's annual plein air painting event that combines outdoor painting with a focus on an aspect of Laborie's culture and history. Participants of all ages and levels of experience are invited to paint together as a group while enjoying the outdoors in the beautiful village of Laborie.

This year's subject will be the traditional wooden building - once ubiquitous but now a slowly disappearing feature of our landscape. Participants will meet at the square and from there be directed to nearby buildings, one or more of which they can choose as a subject for their painting. Informal instruction and guidance will be available and local experts will be on hand to give a brief talk on the features of these traditional buildings and how they were made. The length of the session will be two to three hours. Participants should bring whatever art supplies they'd like to use - paints, pencils, crayons, tablets, cameras, etc. Paint the Village has been growing in popularity since its start in 2016 and Laborie is proud to have it as one of the high points in our calendar of cultural events.

9:45 a.m., Laborie Village Square, Laborie

Monday 16 and Wednesday 18 January 2023 Metaphorically Speaking with Delia Dolor and Guest, Sylvester Herman "If you rush it, you'll ruin it"

Delia is joined by the founder of IslandSlice, Sylvester Herman, a fourth generation rum distiller. His passion for rum started at a young age growing up in St Lucia watching his father distilling and selling his own home-made rums from the family shop.

Employing the 200-year-old family knowledge and history of rum making, he started his own distillery in Dalreoch, Dumbarton (affectionately known as "Rumbarton"), Scotland in 2015, where he now lives.

Using the metaphor, "If you rush it, you'll ruin it", he tells Delia how his father, Richardson Gabriel (Cheso) of Lamaze, Choiseul; Saint Lucia's Nobel Laureates; and Daren Sammy OBE, inspired him.

NOBEL LAUREATE DAY (Cont.) Monday 23 January 2023

Metaphorically Speaking with Delia Dolor and Guest, John Robert Lee "Saint Lucia as a Metaphor"

Saint Lucian Poet, John Robert Lee, close friend of Nobel Laureate Sir Derek Walcott, was a guest on Metaphorically Speaking in January 2022. He spoke about Saint Lucia as a metaphor, using his poem, "Lusca" which he dedicated to Sir Derek. The research for the programme uncovered many interesting facts: "Look at a map. Like many islands, St Lucia is teardrop shaped. Isn't that a sort of metaphor for the suffering and pain of Saint Lucy, or the suffering experienced by the island's inhabitants throughout the last few hundred years - piracy, war, invasion and, darkest of all, slavery? But Saint Lucians are a people infused with hope and celebration and the shape of the island could equally be a tear of joy.

"Turn your map anti-clockwise, and notice how the island is shaped like a human eye...very apt for the story of the saint after whom it's named, and perhaps there's another metaphor there – 'Keeping a weather eye on the Atlantic', maybe, since St Lucia sits in Hurricane Alley where huge storms are born that make their way through the islands and on to mainland America with often devastating effect."

Friday 27 January 2023 The 7th Annual UWI Open Campus Saint Lucia Patricia Ismond Memorial Workshop

The UWI Open Campus Saint Lucia will host the 7th Annual Dr Patricia Ismond Memorial Workshop entitled, "Hands-on Approaches to Teaching Poetry".

The workshop is dedicated to the memory of Saint Lucian literary icon and long-serving UWI Lecturer, Dr Patricia Ismond PhD, in whose name a generous posthumous scholarship for Saint Lucian students attending The UWI has been established. The session will be held at the University's Morne Fortune site, is intended for CSEC English B teachers who participated in the 2022 workshop, and will focus on poetry.

The facilitator of the workshop is retired lecturer in literature and drama, St Lucian born poet and playwright Kendel Hippolyte. He has published seven books of poetry, and his poems have appeared internationally in various journals such as The Greenfield Review, The Massachusetts Review and The Review, and in anthologies like Caribbean Poetry Now, Voiceprint, West Indian Poetry and others. He has also written eight plays, three of which have been published in drama anthologies.

Mr Hippolyte is an original and continuing member of the syllabus panel for the Caribbean Examinations Council (CXC) Theatre Arts Programme and serves as an external examiner. In 2000, he was awarded the St Lucia Medal of Merit (Gold) for his Contribution to the Arts. Recently retired from the Sir Arthur Lewis Community College, his present focus is to use his skills as a writer and dramatist to raise public awareness and contribute to active solutions of critical social issues.

9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. UWI Open Campus Saint Lucia, Morne Fortune, Castries.

Friday 27 and Saturday 28 January 2023 "The Gwo Pwel Rehabilitation Centre – The Finale"

The play captures and brings to a conclusion the stories of patients admitted into the glorified emotional wellness centre and the people who work there, as they try to figure out this thing called life. The themes wrap around love, betrayal, healing, emotional wellness and bringing light to toxic workspaces and outdated ways of thinking. The play was written by Danielle Du Bois and will be directed by Leona Sandiford. Saint Lucia can expect to see new roles and new faces in this comedic fictional piece, created to shine a light on issues and happenings that affect us all.

On the Friday, secondary school students will be invited to witness the play at a Matinee showing, where a question and answer segment will follow. This daytime showing will serve as an opportunity for CSEC Theatre Arts students to witness and critique a play, which forms part of their SBA requirements for the successful completion of the subject.

7:30 p.m., National Cultural Centre, Barnard Hill, Castries. Ticket Price To Be Announced

For further information contact: Ms Danielle Du Bois | wearedramacan@gmail.com | (1-758) 285-8636
